Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that N N Adithya Kashyap (Candidate ID: BS/REG/112602) successfully completed their internship in the domain of Machine Learning at Alfido Tech from 01/11/2025 to 30/11/2025.

During the internship, N N Adithya Kashyap demonstrated strong technical skills, quick learning ability, and a professional attitude. They contributed effectively to assigned projects, collaborated well with team members, and consistently delivered quality work on time.

They also showed proficiency in relevant tools, frameworks, and methodologies, while actively participating in brainstorming sessions and offering innovative ideas. Their adaptability to new challenges and dedication to achieving project goals were commendable.

In addition, maintained excellent communication with peers and mentors, showed a positive approach towards feedback, and handled responsibilities with minimal supervision. Their proactive mindset and willingness to explore creative solutions greatly benefited the projects they were involved in.

Based on their performance, we confidently recommend N N Adithya Kashyap for future academic or professional opportunities. We wish them continued success in their career ahead.

Sincerely,

Founder & CEO
